600/- lakhs to National Safety Council per year;

(b) whether it is a fact that the National Safety Council is run by people who have not been specially trained in prevention of accidents; and

(c) what steps Government are taking to improve the functioning of the National Safety Council?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P.A. SANGMA): (a) to (c) No, Sir. However, the Government gives grant-in-aid to the Council for the purpose of printing and distribution of posters, industrial safety chronicle and technical booklets on safety. During the financial year 1986-87, grants in-aid amounting to Rs. 2.5 lakhs was given to the Council for this purpose.

The National Safety Council is a Registered Society and a Public Trust registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and the Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950 respectively. The main objective of the Council is to generate, develop and sustain a movement of safety awareness. The Council manages its affairs independently through its Board of Governors which, among others, consists of representatives of Central organisations of employers and workers and experts on health and safety.
